Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

iMentor builds mentoring relationships that empower students in low-income communities to graduate high school, succeed in college, and achieve their ambitions. Students work with their mentors one-on-one, in-person, and online to develop strong personal relationships, nurture a college aspiration, navigate the college application process, and build critical skills that lead to college success.

iMentor partners with public schools to ensure every student in the school receives a mentor. iMentor also provides its curriculum, technology, and best practices to nonprofits nationwide to help them run effective programs in the iMentor model.

Since 1999, iMentor has connected 13,000 students with mentors.

PROGRESS IN NEW YORK CITY:

iMentor NYC is iMentor's direct service program. In the 2013-2014 program year, iMentor served over 2,744 students through partnerships with 18 high schools throughout New York City. The program began in 1999 serving 49 students in 1 high school in the Bronx. By 2018, our goal is to serve 6,000 students annually. iMentor partners with public high schools in New York City that serve low-income students and we match every student in the school with a college-educated mentor. Our mentors commit 3-4 years to a single mentee and after these initial commitments, all pairs have the option to continue their match through college completion. We provide pairs with the curriculum, resources, and support from certified college counselors to ensure that they achieve 4 core outcomes: (1) Develop a strong personal relationship; (2) Develop a college aspiration that is idiosyncratic to each student's hopes for the future; (3) Develop the non-academic skills that research shows are critical for college success; and (4) Effectively navigate the post-secondary process. By helping students achieve these outcomes each year, iMentor has ensured more low-income

IMENTOR PARTNER ROGRAMS PROGRESS:

iMentor Partner Programs brings iMentor's nationally recognized mentoring model to communities across the country to help young people succeed in college and beyond.

In the 2013-14 program year, iMentor Partner Programs served 2,046 mentor-mentee pairs through partnerships with 14 organizations in 11 different states. We have three additional partners who are in their planning phase and will launch programs in fall of 2015, resulting in an increase to a total of 17 partners in 13 states. We partner with organizations that share our goal of empowering young people from low-income communities to graduate high school, succeed in college, and achieve their life ambitions. Our partners implement the iMentor program in schools in their communities, utilizing all aspects of the iMentor model, including our college-success curriculum, mentor training and screening materials, technology platform, and program analysis tools. Partners also have exclusive access to best practices iMentor has learned from 15 years operating its direct service program, and to the national partner network. iMentor staff provide intensive assistance to each partner with program design, staff onboarding and training, and ongoing program implementation and evaluation.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

The organization has a "board approved" conflicts of interest policy. Each board member must fill out an annual declaration stating they had no conflicts or identifying the nature of their interested party transactions.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b - Compensation Review & Approval Process - Officers & Key Employees

The iMentor Personnel Committee annually evaluates the CEO on his performance and asks for his input on matters of performance and compensation. The Personnel Committee, with assistance from the Managing Director of Talent ("MDT"), Chief Operating Officer ("COO") and the CEO gather current salaries, comparable salaries from like organizations (similar in mission, size, budget, and geographical location) for like position (with similar professional qualifications and job duties, and salary history for the CEO and other highly compensated or key employees under evaluation. The MDT and COO meet with the Personnel Committee to discuss any questions and provide additional information and research as needed to support the evaluation.

The iMentor Personnel Committee obtains and evaluates research and information to make a recommendation to the full Board for the compensation (salary, benefits, any discretionary or performance-based bonus and any other compensation or benefit) of the CEO (and other highly compensated employees or key employees) based on a review of comparability data. For example, the Personnel Committee will secure data that documents compensation levels and benefits for similarly qualified individuals in comparable positions at similar organizations. This data may include the following:

1. Salary and benefit compensation studies by independent sources;
2. Actual written job offers for positions at similar organizations competing for the CEO's services;

3. Documented telephone calls and email communications about similar positions at both nonprofit and for-profit organizations; and

4. Information obtained from the IRS Form 990 filings of similar organizations.

The Personnel Committee makes its recommendation to the Board in an Executive Session. The Personnel Committee then informs the MDT and COO of the Board's compensation decision, which the MDT and COO communicates to the CEO. Any performance-based bonus awarded to the CEO is granted at the discretion of the Board and subject to this policy. Salaries are finalized in conjunction with the Performance Evaluations.
